AS OF: DECEMBER 31, 2017

Global equity fund, aggressive

MARKET COMMENTARY

The tranche gained 0.9% in December, which amounted to a growth of 10.7% for the entire year. The outperformance in 2017 was 2.7%, with 0.6% of that generated in December alone. Two factors drove up performance for 2017: turnarounds and electromobility. The turnaround group is headed up by Valeant at +61.3% - a favourite amongst speculative investors that eventually lost favour. High debt, pending billion dollar lawsuits, but a stable basic business and a low single-digit P/E ratio, made Valeant our favourite value stock. The second-favourite performer was Deutsche Pfandbriefbank at +60.0%: cheap, boring and successful. It was followed by three companies that are beneficiaries of the electromobility revolution, namely SQM (+60.0%), Samsung (+42.2%) and BYD (+37.2%). Having said that, there were also several noteworthy failures, including Banca Monte dei Paschi, Technicolor and O'Reilly Automotive.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND - PHILOSOPHY

The fund invests mainly in companies that have been chosen based upon traditional stock analysis (fundamental "bottom-up" analysis of individual stocks). The selection adheres to classical shareholder value aspects. The fund invests in companies that are undervalued according to at least one of the following criteria: undervalued net asset value, high earnings power (that is not reflected in the stock price), above-average dividend yield, neglected industries or countries, overrated crises. Important factors in making a decision are the transparency of the company's accounting and its corporate governance. A pre-selection of stocks is made through quantitative screening. The decision to buy is then made after a thorough analysis of the available information on each company.
