

ACATIS ELM KONZEPT

AS OF: JUNE 30, 2018

Balanced fund, defensive, market neutral

MARKET COMMENTARY

The fund price fell by 1.5% during the reporting month. Its performance since the beginning of the year has been -1.0%. The biggest losers in June were FinTech (-18.4%), bet-at-home (-17.6%) and Gesco (-7.1%). FinTech suffered from profit-taking. Bet-at-home fell following the announcement that Swiss Casinos would receive on-line licenses. Gesco's profit indication was slightly below market expectations. The biggest winners in June were Scottish Salmon (+12.6%) and Invision (+4.1%). Scottish Salmon continues to benefit from high salmon prices. Invision rose without news. Bijou Brigitte, Deutsche Euroshop, the Evotec discounter, Lenzing and the terminated PNE bond were sold in June. In turn, we added the Swedish company BillerudKorsnäs.

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND - PHILOSOPHY

The aim of Acatis ELM Konzept is to deliver a clearly positive return independently of market movements. This return is to be achieved with as little volatility as possible. The fund's assets are invested in selected equities (directly or through discount certificates). The stock picking and the selection of the stocks underlying the discount certificates is based on a multi-stage investment process. The fund also invests in bonds which are selected on the basis of traditional fixed-income research. Management pursues an anti-cyclical stock selection approach with active stock picking. It is modelled on the value investing strategy of Warren Buffett. The portfolio is rounded out with hedging elements, e.g. reverse bonus certificates, which deliver a positive performance contribution also in moderately rising markets.
